The Pride Of All The West

North Bend High School
North Bend, Oregon
Volume LXII

In the beginning there was spirit...

HONOR SONG

All hail, all hail to North Bend High
The pride of all the West!
We'll sing out the story and We'll yell out the glory
Of the school we love the best!

We'll fight, fight, fight for victory
And let our colors fly,
We will ever stand
Every heart and hand
For the honor of North Bend High!

ALMA MATER

North Bend High, our Alma Mater
Memories N'er forgot.
Heaven and earth, thy sons and daughters
Will thy blessings be.
When the setting sun shall vanish
Glory is thy lot.
Love and Loyalty forever
Is my pledge to thee.

BULLDOG Spirit!

Here is where it all began years of laughing, sharing, learning;
 growing up, growing together . . .
 going away.

No matter where life leads me
 my heart is with the bay.

It all began with you helping, caring, supporting;
 through the years of ups and downs . . .
 you believed in us —
 we believed in ourselves —
 we never let go.

Together as a whole,
 we let our North Bend pride show.

So here's to you — the people who have never let us down;
 to parents, teachers and workers alike;
 to those who taught us wrong from right,
 to all who understand the plight of growing up and going away.

Here's to you . . . the people of the bay.

"HIRED HANDS"

ADMINISTRATION

School Board members: Mrs. Susan Massey, Mr. Jack Stevens, Mr. Howard Gardiner, Mrs. Madalyn Wilson, Mr. Rick Colerick, Mr. Stan Smith, and Mr. Bob Laughland

Collector of commemorative stamp plate blocks, Dr. James Ullum, superintendent of District 13, was born and raised in Swaledale, Iowa. He earned his Ph D at the University of Iowa, and has been at North Bend since 1970

Outside of Dr. Lee Wicklund's busy schedule, he takes time to enjoy gardening, crabbing, fishing and reading, not to mention spending time with his two elementary school boys. Director of Curriculum and Instruction, Dr. Wicklund believes that, "If you expect to see the final results of your work, you have not asked a big enough question." Dr. Wicklund has been administering in North Bend for 7 years

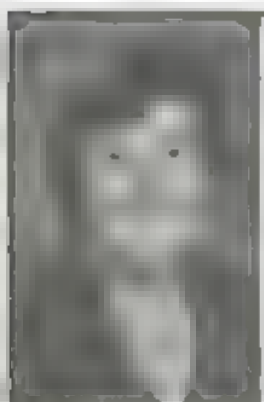

A N B H S. alumni Mr. Ken Stobie has been administering at North Bend for 6 years. Prior to his experience as principal, Mr. Stobie was a teacher. In his spare time, he enjoys fishing, bowling and golfing. After another hazardous day of principal's duties, Mr. Stobie exclaims, "But, I know what I meant."

"Reality begins today," transmits Mr. Ron Handke, assistant principal at N B H S. He was born and raised in Iowa, achieved a Masters at OSU and has been at N B H S. for 14 years. Besides sponsoring the dreaded Saturday school, Mr. Handke hunts, fishes, and woodworks. As a point of interest, he was for several years, the personal golf instructor for Ken Stobie and David Abraham.

Before becoming Dean of Students at North Bend, Mrs. Monita Johnson taught French. She also advised the senior class. "Opportunity comes disguised as hard work," states Mrs.

Johnson, a lover of stitchery, reading and baking

Mr. Wayne Fox, a "veteran" here at N B H S., has been Athletic Director for fourteen years. He was raised in North Bend and earned his M. Ed at OSU. Mr. Fox, sometimes considered a threat to Jack Nicklaus, enjoys playing golf and reading in his spare time

An outdoorsman who enjoys fishing and hunting, Mr. Harold Wornath taught business education and served as the Career and Vocational Director. Mr. Wornath was born and raised in Missoula, Montana and earned his M.A. at the University of Montana. He has been teaching since 1962. Horses have a special place in his heart; he hates them!

FACULTY

Mr. Dave Abraham taught U.S. history, social problems and study hall last year at North Bend. He was also the varsity wrestling coach.

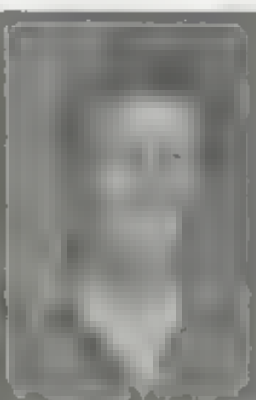

A ten year veteran at North Bend, Mr. Richard Armstrong is a true out doorsman. Since his arrival, he has been teaching health and P.E. along with coaching J.V. foot ball and baseball.

Mr. Armstrong believes one should concentrate on living a full today instead of dwelling on yesterday or tomorrow.

Spanish and art were the favorite subjects of Miss Anne Batey back in the days when she attended Pullman High School, in Washington. She later earned her B.S. at Washington State University. Miss Batey has taught science at North Bend for four years as well as coaching freshman volleyball.

Oregon is farther west, but there are more cowboys in Colorado, says Miss Barbara Baudinat, who was raised in Denver. She taught for 3 years at Washington State University, where she earned her M.A. in Foreign Languages and Literature. She taught and advised French, French Club and annual here for 2 years. She enjoys skiing, reading and traveling, having spent a year touring Europe and studying at the Sorbonne in Paris.

"Wrangler" Rick Wetherell oversees the grub line.

"Do the best you can possibly do," is the philosophy of Mr. Steve Berry. Born and raised in Buchanan, Michigan, Mr. Berry enjoys hunting, fishing and playing golf. He earned his masters degree at Western Michigan University. This was his first year here at North Bend. He taught biology and coached varsity basketball and track.

A decade at North Bend, Mr. Bill Bond has been teaching for 17 years. Born and raised in Idaho, Mr. Bond earned his B.S. in geology at the University of Idaho. He taught math and science.

After being in Oregon for nearly thirteen years, Mr. Richard Brown "claims" to officially talk Oregonian. Mr. Brown was born in Massachusetts and earned his M.A. at the Boston Conservatory of Music. He taught stage, concert and symphonic band this past year as well as advising flag squad. Mr. Brown, a believer of the Golden Rule, enjoys hiking and fishing.

Mr. McGrady contemplates removing a nosey cameraman.

Mrs. Corliss Burgher arrived at North Bend at mid-year. She replaced the former BOSC teacher, Mrs. Lovatt. Mrs. Burgher also advised F.B.L.A. She was formerly an international airline hostess and flew to Rome, London, Lisbon and Geneva. She enjoys skiing, gardening and reading.

I heeded Horace Greeley's advice when young and have found the west to be golden," explained Mr. Ronald Calhoun. Mr. Calhoun moved from Enid, Oklahoma and attended Oregon

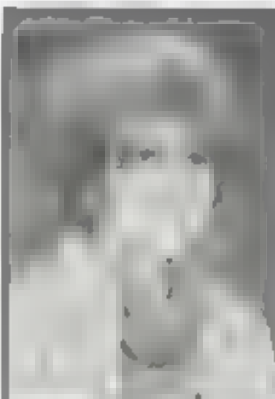

State University. He taught English, coached tennis, and advised Chess Club this past year. An interesting fact about Mr. Calhoun's life is that he delivered his first son on the kitchen floor.

After 23 years of service in the United States Air Force in Germany and Korea, Mr. Robert Cazal arrived in North Bend to teach food occupations cluster just two years ago. Mr. Cazal was born and raised in the mid-west and enjoys cooking, hunting and fishing

Patience is one of Mrs. Ina Christensen's outstanding traits. A graduate of U. of O. she enjoys camping, reading, and crafts. She has taught English II and art in the 10 years that she has been at N.B.H.S. Mrs. Christensen also advised Art Club

Ever wonder where the phrase "Superbia Omnis Herperiae" came from? Mrs. Patricia Choat Pierce could tell you. She has a set of visuals explaining the school seal. Mrs. Pierce, who offers valuable information to college bound seniors, has been teaching at N.B.H.S., her alma mater, since 1953. She enjoys dog training, coin collecting, gardening, and theatergoing

After 18 years at N.B.H.S., Mr. Carrol Cone, Director of Student Services, recalls that vocational agriculture was his favorite subject in high school. Mr. Cone revealed that he was born in a one-room log cabin on a homestead in South Dakota. "Something happened though, I didn't get to be president," he jokes. Mr. Cone earned his M. Ed. at the U. of O. and some of his favorite hobbies are hunting and woodcutting

Born in Frankfurt, Germany and raised in both East Prussia and West Germany, Mrs. Cummings taught . . . you guessed it, German! She also instructed language arts. Mrs. Cummings enjoys hunting, fishing, arts and crafts, reading and traveling. She believes, "You must work for what you expect to get out of life"

Rumor has it that Ms. Sue Edson enjoys backpacking, camping and possibly photography. She just completed her second year at North Bend teaching math. Ms. Edson earned her

B.A. at Washington State University

"My wife and I finally got a daughter, even though she is 14 years younger than our boys," beamed Mr. Foy Fields. Teacher of electronics and math, Mr. Fields has just enjoyed his sixth year at N.B.H.S. He enjoys golf, as coaching girls golf was one of his many activities at N.B.H.S. last year. He also advised VICA and Short Circuit

Mr. Roman reads another one of his famous retorts

Mrs. Vi Fietz, a Canadian native, graduated from Milwaukee High School. She has been teaching in the journalism department at North Bend for 5 years, as well as advising the BARKER. Mrs. Fietz also enjoys photography, traveling and refinishing antique furniture

Mr. Ralph Gazeley has been teaching at N.B.H.S. for 23 years. Last year Mr. Gazeley was in charge of career development and work experience. This suits him perfectly as job stability is certainly one of his outstanding attributes. Mr. Gazeley said, "Too many people realize too late (as I did) that they are mortal." He enjoys singing barbershop style and sailing Window shopping, reading and being creative with yarn are the hobbies of health, P.E., and modern dance teacher Mrs. Merry Gregory Abel. Mrs. Abel coached track and advised the freshman class last year. She believes, "Life is the earth's school of hard knocks for the life beyond." Mrs. Gregory-Abel spent a special Christmas Eve last year, as she married Mr. Mike Abel

"Be nice to people on your way up because you'll meet them again on your way down," is Mr. Steve Greif's philosophy on life. Teacher of government, Oregon history and U.S.

history, Mr. Greif enjoys traveling and viewing historical sites. Last year he coached J.V. basketball, track and advised the senior class.

Mrs. Barbara Griffin used to ride the range (Sunset Golf Course). It was called Big Creek then. Mrs. Griffin taught medical cluster last year as well as the previous ten. She also advised H.O.S.A.

Mr. Steve Gulley claims one wife, two children, one dog, one boat, one pick-up and one station wagon, as the interesting facts about his life. Mr. Gulley has been teaching history and consumer education for 8 years at N.B.H.S.

He also coached football, track and advised the senior class. Mr. Gulley believes, "If you can't do what you want, take the next best thing. You never know what will happen."

Mr. John Hartman claims he would have been a member of one of the wealthiest families in Oklahoma had his great great uncle not fallen ill the day before the Oklahoma land rush. Mr. Hartman has been a band teacher at N.B.H.S. for 6 years. He also advised pep band. His hobbies include playing the saxophone and clamming. Mr. Hartman, one time threat to Agatha Christie, declares he no longer writes detective stories.

Miss Heidi Hartzel is a person of many interests, as her hobbies range from racketball to reading. Miss Hartzel played collegiate tennis and field hockey. She taught health and P.E. this past year, along with coaching tennis, J.V. volleyball, and J.V. basketball.

Another future is placed in the hands of Mr. Cone, guidance counselor.

"There are three types of people, those who make things happen, those who watch things happen, and those who wonder what happened." The above is a select bit of philosophy from mechanics teacher Mr. Bruce Hawkins. He also taught career development last year, as well as advising VICA and Gear Grinders. Mr. Hawkins enjoys reading and stereo.

Mr. Bill Horning taught P.E. and health at North Bend last year. He also coached frosh basketball and football.

Mrs. Marion Ingram, born and raised in Portland, Oregon, taught living in families, home economics and child development. Prior to teaching for 8 years at N.B.H.S., she earned her M.S.

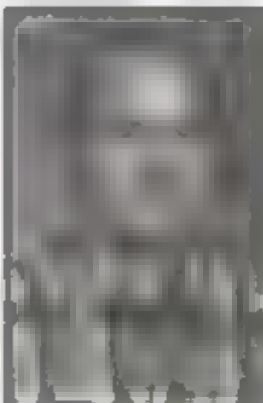

in Counseling/Guidance at the U. of O. Surprisingly, Mrs. Ingram's favorite subject in high school was math.

"I'm only one, but I am one. I may not be able to do everything, but I can do something. That which I can do, I will do, by the grace of God, to the best of my ability" The above is an original quote from Mr. Howard Johnson, teacher of P.E. and head coach of football. Mr. Johnson also enjoys boating and fishing in his spare time

"Life is great," replied Mr. Ken Joubert who taught woodshop last year at N.B.H.S. Mr. Joubert attained his bachelors degree at O.S.U., which is quite far away from Milner, North Dakota, where he was born and raised

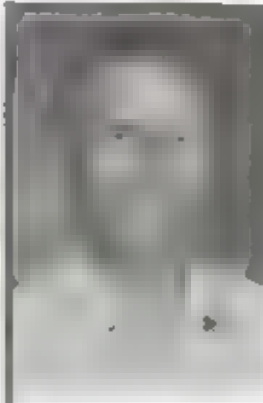

A graduate of rival Marshfield High School, Miss Anne Kingsley spent her first year at N.B.H.S. teaching skills lab. Miss Kingsley taught in South Australia from 1972-1976 and spent a year at Swansea in Wales on a Rotary Scholarship. Her favorite subject in high school was band and she now enjoys photography, traveling and sports. "Nothing is impossible," exclaims Miss Kingsley

Mrs. Lawrence zeros in on the game

Raised on an Indiana farm, Mr. Paul Kuckuck believes, "If it is worth doing, it is worth doing well." Mr. Kuckuck has been teaching math and science at N.B.H.S. for 6 years. His hobbies reflect his rural background. They are fishing and backpacking

Mrs. Jo Lane, humble as she is, responded with question marks when asked to write something interesting about herself. Mrs. Lane has completed her sixth year at North Bend

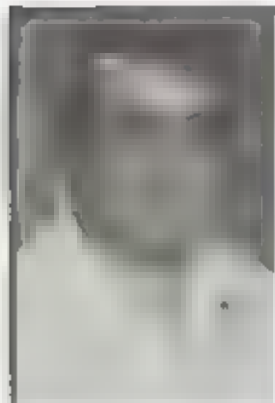

Her hobbies include macrame, remodeling and stained glass. She earned her masters at the University of Wisconsin-Stout Fishing and hunting are the hobbies of power mechanics teacher, Mr. Steve Lane. Mr. Lane was raised in Menomonie, Wisconsin and studied 5 years at OSU. He quoted, "Never quote yourself"

Mr. Fred McDonald taught drafting at North Bend last year. He has been teaching for 12 years

VICA and Electrodes were advised by Mr. Barney McGrady, five year metals shop teacher at N.B.H.S. Mr. McGrady enjoys hiking and short wave radio. He came to us from Washington, although he earned his M. Ed. at OSU.

Mr. Bill McGuire, half clad in black, claims to enjoy teaching as he has been for 12 years, all of which at N.B.H.S. Mr. McGuire has taught math and has advised National Honor Society. A man of great intellect, reading and tackling math problems are on his list of hobbies

Who was born and raised in Hood River, Oregon, has taught for 16 years (fourteen at N.B.H.S.) and enjoys singing barbershop harmony? It is social science teacher and Girls

League advisor Mrs. Jean McNamar. Mrs. McNamar has been an Oregonian all her life in addition to graduating from O.S.U. with a Bachelor of Science

Before majoring in Spanish and earning her M.A.T. at Portland State University, Mrs. Donna Martin was born and raised in Westfield, Massachusetts. She has been teaching Spanish at N.B.H.S.

for 5 years. She also advised Students to Mexico. In her spare time, Mrs. Martin enjoys listening to music, camping, and Mr. Martin.

Mr. Les Martin, who advised Lucky Loggers, and has taught forestry for 7 years, took root and sprouted in Eugene

He earned his masters at O.S.U. and his hobbies range from waterfowling to you name it! (in his words) He also enjoys camping and photography

"Life is for living, loving, laughing and learning," beams ever smiling Miss Penny Martin, modern dance and drill team instructor. Her favorite subjects in high school were Spanish and P.E. In her spare time, Miss Martin enjoys sking, dancing and writing.

Mr. Dan Mathews enjoys surfing, as he dropped out of college to manufacture surfboards. He later went back and earned a B.A. at Linfield College. Mr. Mathews has been at N.B.H.S. for 7 years, teaching physical science and biology, coaching cross country and track, and advising the junior class. Mr. Mathews believes that, "What we are now determines our past and our future"

N.B.H.S. Valedictorian of the class of 1976, Miss Gilan Menegat advised rally and taught U.S. history, government and English I. After traveling overseas numerous times and visiting four continents besides North America, Miss Menegat could quite honestly be called an international connoisseur!

Physics, trigonometry, Algebra I and advanced math were the subjects taught by Mr. Jim Moyer last year. Not surprisingly, math was his favorite subject in high school. Mr. Moyer was born in Alturas, California and raised in Medford. He earned his masters at the U of O. and has been teaching 14 years, all of which are at N.B.H.S. Mr. Moyer also enjoys fishing and boating. His belief is, "Work like everything depends on you."

Mr. Ray Nelsen, a literary master, has a wide variety of hobbies ranging from gardening to wood working. He was born and raised in Montana, but went to college at Oregon College of Education. Mr. Nelsen taught English and coached track and cross country

Mr. Larry Nipgen taught English at N.B.H.S. and earned his M.A. at Montana University. By the way, he hates personal questions and questionnaires!

Creative person that he is, Mr. Dale Overstake designs his own fashion belts. Mr. Overstake was born in Lebanon, Nebraska and raised in Fort Lupton, Colorado. He has taught math and consumer education for 19 years at N.B.H.S. Mr. Overstake also enjoys golf and fishing Advisor of Boardbusters and VICA, Mr. Ed Patton has taught metals and construction cluster for 5 years at N.B.H.S. Mr. Patton's hobbies range from motorcycles to furniture making

"A good teacher is one that can select from the vast sea of knowledge, those things they feel most important and teach them on purpose, not by accident." The above is a sample of Mr. Patton's teaching philosophy

Mr. Greif explains the assignment . . . again.

Mrs. Simmons relaxes after seventh period Mythology

Who is that jovial voice that brightens our mornings with his witty words of wisdom in the announcements? Why, it's Mr. Bill Poppe who came to us from the mid-west ten years ago, and has been a teacher of science, director of activities, and advisor of student council for the past year. Mr. Poppe's hobbies are fishing, photography and keeping Harold Wornath honest in his fishing stories

"No matter what you do give it your best shot," is Mr. Romano Romani's philosophy and he put it to good use while teaching social problems and coaching football and baseball. Born in Chicago, Illinois, he came to N.B.H.S. in 1969. In addition to advising the Key Club, and the senior class, Mr. Romano enjoys sports and reading Aviation was Mrs. Dorothy Roth's favorite high school subject. Mrs. Roth was born and raised in Illinois, and earned her M.S. at Northern Illinois University. She has been working in the skulls lab at North Bend for 4 years. She feels, "Life is like a rodeo, always challenging and exciting."

Optimist, Mrs. Cindy Schultz says, "I try to make everyone feel important and smile everyday." Mrs. Schultz has been teaching P.E. and health for eight years at North Bend. She coached varsity volleyball and frosh girls basketball in the 1981-82 school year

TEACHER TEACHER

Teacher Teacher,
Time is here
A close of another year

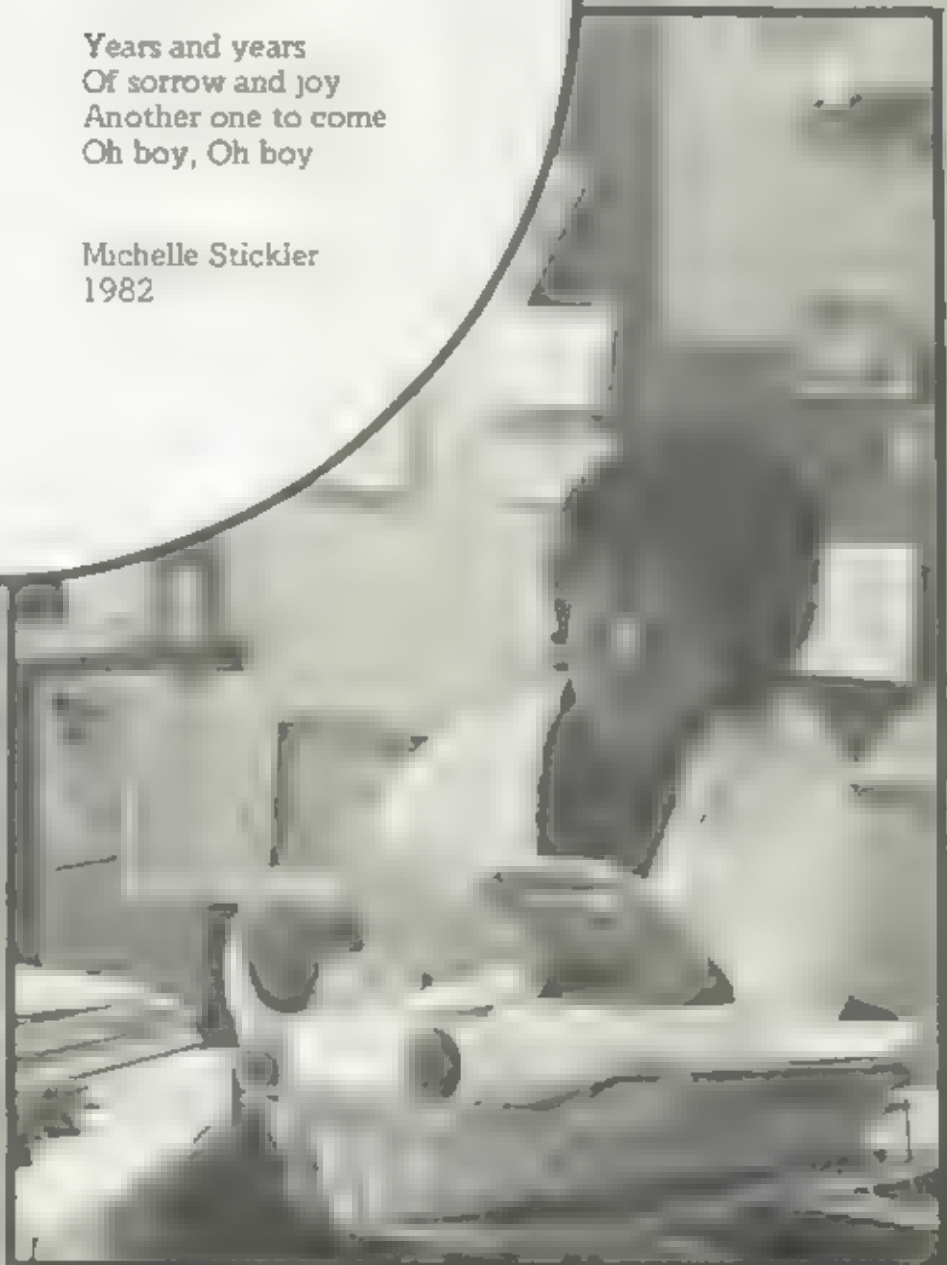

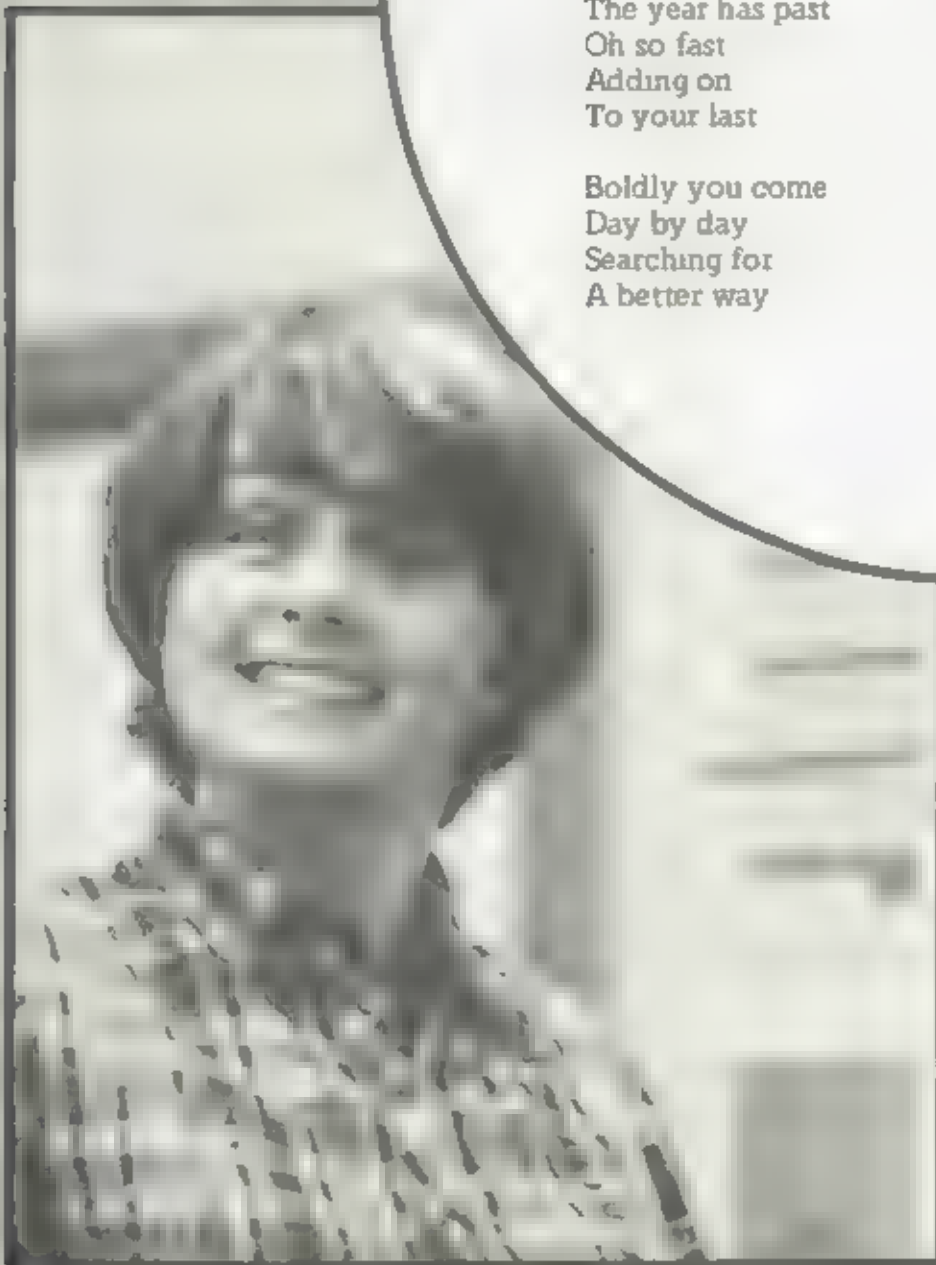

The year has past
Oh so fast
Adding on
To your last

Boldly you come
Day by day
Searching for A better way

Walking down the Halls so proud
Smiles and laughter
Of the crowd

Years and years
Of sorrow and joy
Another one to come
Oh boy, Oh boy

LOOKING BACK

Looking back; remembering
The good and the bad,
Reminiscing upon
The happy and sad
Life was so simple
For little girls and boys,
A problem was losing
Our favorite toys,
Dolls and dirt
And sticky sweets,
Popsicle sticks
And shoeless feet,
Laughter and smiles,
And pitiful tears,
Help us to grow
Over the years,
But the time has come
When we must fly,
And life gets harder
As time goes by
Struggles and decisions
To what's right & what's wrong,
The memories will help us,
To make it along.

"READIN', 'RITIN', 'RITHMETIK"

LANGUAGE ARTS

Language arts classes had a very exciting yet tough year, and students were quite aware of this fact. There were three levels of difficulty and skill: developmental, standard and honors. In most of the classes, students charged into the basic hum-drum make-up of the English language, the fearful parts of speech, never ending compositions, yawn inducing vocabulary, and, of course, short story. Language arts was the only class required all four years of high school, although there were additional electives such as creative writing, newspaper, forensics, journalism, mythology, drama and speech

Doug Schmidt, like many other serious English students, looks for the answers in the card catalogue

Mr. Cahoon loves to philosophize

Taking tests is about as exciting as this caption.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

The social science clan consisted of classes who studied the history of how our incredible country came together, how it works today, and it's plans for tomorrow. These classes included government, U.S. History I and II, Oregon history and social problems.

Some of the things taught and discussed were the cowboy and Indian dilemma, presidential conflicts, branches of government, and the devastating wars

By the study of past trends and their effects on our modern world, social science classes prepared students for the future challenges that our nation faces

The "Great Depression" hits Mr. Greif's class

Mike Lucero digs history class

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

German is this classes' bag and French Food is a highlight for others

Mrs. Holtz volunteer helps Senor Lelay with his Spanish

If you were hearing unfamiliar sounds in the halls last year like, "Que pasa?, Ca va?, or Wie geht's?," then you were most likely entering the 'foreign language zone'. Besides the study of grueling grammar, students enjoyed skits, dialogues, labs, and experimenting with foreign foods. The French classes observed the festivities of Mardi Gras, the Germans celebrated the Oktoberfest and Spanish classes danced in the celebration of Cinco de Mayo.

In May they attended "Foreign Language Day" at the U. of O., which offered workshops in various languages. A foreign language banquet was also held in May.

Four different levels of each language were offered. Through the study of a foreign language, we can become familiar with and learn to understand the customs and ways of different people around the world.

ART

Alfred Pratt and Keith Wheeler take time out for a camera break.

Flourishing young artists, Patti Seiden and Missy Southard, create a masterpiece

Making the mosaic is largely piece work.

If you've noticed the creative additions to our school, then you know the art classes worked hard last year. They involved themselves with everything from painting the halls with unusual but beautiful murals, to the creation of the unique and awesome mosaic of our seal. Other of their activities included painting, sketching, and working with clay.

MATH

Math students had an outstanding year "pioneering new planes." N.B.H.S. math classes included everything from struggling with the basic addition and subtraction to attempting to comprehend the impossibilities of matrices and permutations. There were many exciting classes to choose from including general math, trigonometry, three levels of algebra, advanced math, and computer science.

Eager geometry students, Pat Fields, Kurt Smith, Ted Zuvich, Debi Chambers, Kaisa Forrest and Dee Dee Johnson, demonstrate what it's like to be an isosceles triangle.

Mr. McGure to the rescue!

SCIENCE

Mind boggling experiments, orbit plotting, dissecting, and the study of ecosystems and the elements were only a few of the many fascinating activities observed in the realm of science last year. A variety of classes at all levels were offered, such as basic, regular and advanced biology, marine biology (for the Jacques Cousteau types), physics, general science, physical science and chemistry.

Chemist Irene Meservey mixes up a special potion as curious Lynette Finell wonders just what it is.

What's a water molecule? Mr. Poppe's class knows!

Mad scientist Chris Lee may have invented something.

The last day of school is good for your health, as shown by these Health II students

Kels Whittam and Jenni Ries take their health seriously

If you've ever wondered what happens to your stomach after consuming a Big Mac, you probably could have found out in Health classes last year. Students learned everything from the basic "you are what you eat" lecture, to the complexities of human reproduction. Some classes also chose interesting health topics and put together informative reports, to contribute to the health of fellow students.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Muscle men Carl Johnson and Todd Arellanes take a geometry break

Liz Nevin carries her weight in emphasis class

The P.E. department had a little something for everyone last year. Sports fans could participate in anything from Korfball, golf, badminton, gymnastics, archery and soccer to the basic football, tennis, basketball and softball. For those interested in sports training or just plain staying in shape, emphasis classes were also offered. These avid body-builders followed a conditioning program of running, weight-lifting and exercising.

MODERN DANCE

The Modern Dance classes "leaped" through last year with Miss Penny Martin as their advisor. Between the many turns and arabesques, the students put their feelings into moves with the creation of difficult, and sometimes unusual, dances. The classes were divided between Modern Dance I, which consisted mainly of freshman and sophomores, and the more experienced dancers of Modern Dance II. This class was then divided between the technique and performance classes. The girls and a few daring guys worked hard to create and present their dances well, which was shown in the Modern Dance Show held May 27th and 28th.

SHADOWS OF IMAGINATION

A smiling Lowell Coddington takes a breather between dances

The show biz life sure is tough at times.

Shadows of Imagination are portrayed in the fast paced dance "All together"

The Modern Dance show "Shadows of Imagination" was a smashing success. A variety of dances were performed with spectacular ability under the supervision of Miss Penny Martin. From the breathtaking beauty of "Roman Brio", to the snappy beat of the obvious favorite "Denyagitintuit", spectators were on the edge of their seats. There were numerous other dances including "Dime Store Vigilante", a dance revealing the crime of shop lifting, and "Memories", a touching dance dedicated in the memory of Robyn Ralls. The audience was both surprised and pleased at the flaunted talents of the three male dancers Modern Dancers worked hard for months to perfect their moves for the show. Dancers had to audition in front of a panel and were chosen according to stage presence, timing, music, and dancing ability.

Darlene Jacobson Deanda Pfaender Laurie Orger Sherry Rush show their experience in "Face to Face"

Elizabeth Wilma and Elisa Strine perform with concentration and precision in their dance "Whimiscal Wands".

Dancer of the year Linda Patton struts her stuff in "A Night on Broadway".

HOME ECONOMICS

Skullful stitcher, Debbie Applegate, sews up her last seam while Teresa Wright reads.

"Galloping Gourmet", Duane Mardock creates a culinary delight

Home economics classes are those that best prepare students for the hazardous domestic world that exists outside of high school. Basic foods and food and nutrition classes instructed students on how to prepare scrumptious "grits" without burning them.

From the sewing classes came imaginative creations such as dresses and skirts.

The highly challenging family relations classes included living in families and understanding children. Students learned how to cope with and understand the problems of family life and to become familiar with the behavior of children.

All home economics classes provide practical training for real life situations and help students to better cope in these hard economic times.

CAREER EDUCATION

Mrs. Stoffel explains the assignment to a bewildered Lynn Gilmore.

Yvonne Greynolds and Laura Atkinson explore possible careers

The class listens intently as a guest speaker explains career choices

Career Education was a newly introduced class for Sophomores last year. The course was designed to educate students in the areas of career planning, job interviews, resumes, and job applications. This was a highly practical course which hit upon many important aspects of job hunting. Students also had a chance to take aptitude tests to find their particular skill areas. Students chose different careers to research, such as working conditions, pay, locations, etc. The course probably opened the eyes of many students who will be looking for jobs in the near future.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Where could you go to learn how to fix that stereo that's been on the blink for a year? Try the North Bend High Vocational Education program. Last year students enrolled in a wide variety of Voc. Ed. classes. The courses were divided into basic classes and the more advanced cluster programs. Cluster classes let students hone their skills to a fine point. Voc. Ed. clusters included: Forest products, Metals, Electrical, Food Service, Medical, Wood, Mechanics, and Construction. Voc. Ed. is not all grease and sweat; there were other courses like typing and drafting which were also offered. All in all, North Bend's Vocational Education programs helped students to find their hidden skills and talents and to apply them toward a possible career.

Bart Massey examines a tangle of electronic guts

Bul Dahl puts the finishing touches on his masterpiece of wooden art

Engineering whiz, John Sherwood, carefully drafts his house plans.

Tom Dexter and Rod Johnson skillfully manipulate the metal lathe.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Marty Soria worked at Grizzly Bear Pizza preparing tempting Italian dishes. Keith Hopper delved into the electronic world of video games and pinball machines. Suzie Graham diligently waded through Weyco paperwork.

From fender work to fast foods, over sixty work experience students encountered on-the-job situations and problems. The coordinator for this program was Mr. Ralph Gazely. Mr. Gazely interviewed all of the students concerning their interests and job desires, and placed them in various locations of employment. Students discovered the hidden aspects of their job choices, such as working conditions, skills required, and most importantly, if they enjoyed that type of work. These experiences will probably play an important part in the selection of future careers.

BOSC

BOSC students manage to maintain an office atmosphere

Judy Goll shows her talent as a transcription typist

Students were quite busy in the business world last year. In the Business Occupations Skills Center, better known as BOSC students typed, filed, computed, and calculated endlessly. Subjects learned included: record keeping, using cash registers, accounting, and computer work. The BOSC program gave students an opportunity to experience the business world in a realistic office setting, and to improve their skills for a future business career.

CONCERT & SYMPHONIC BAND

From all the flutes, trumpets, horns, clarinets and drums, there comes something great: music of the North Bend High School concert and symphonic bands under the direction of Mr. Dick Brown.

The bands worked hard from the beginning and had much to show for it in the end. They played together in competitions and during marching season, when audiences were entertained with anything from a dedication to Elvis to the national anthem. The bands performed in both the O.S.U. Band Competition and at our own fun festival. Two selections were "Swedish Folk Suite" and "Johnathan Livingston Seagull". They also performed at various community events, such as the Air Show, where selections like "Alvamar Overture" and "Salute to T.V. Crimefighters" were heard from the symphonic band.

Horns horns

MARCHING BAND

Mr. Brown zestfully leads the band from his metal perch.

The NBHS marching band does their thing at O.S.U. band days led by Rosanne Warrick, Debbie Pierce and Gail Krambeal.

STAGE BAND

The stage band had a melodiously full and challenging year. They performed for community groups ranging from the North Bend and Coos Bay Senior Centers to all of the District 13 schools. Along with the community gigs, there was also the Pleasant Hill Stage Band Competition. Local audiences enjoyed tunes like "Forbidden Love" and "Pressure Cooker". These talented young musicians were under the expert direction of Mr. Richard Brown.

Alisa Messman - Mallets, Barton Massey - Piano; Dan McCormick - Drums, Gray Williams - Bass Guitar

SWING & CONCERT CHOIR

From a fourteenth century madrigal to Broadway's 42nd Street, the N.B.H.S. concert choir entertained people of the community both young and old alike.

Last year, the concert choir had a special honor, as they were invited to perform in Roseburg at the 1982 Oregon Music Educators Music Festival. Approximately eighteen different choirs throughout the state participated.

This melodious group ended the school year in collaboration with the junior high and elementary schools at the District 13 choir festival.

The N.B.H.S. Swing Choir, also under the direction of Mr. David Williams, can be described in one word - ENTERTAINMENT! Last year they sang their way into the hearts of many a person when they performed for clubs like Soroptimist, Rotary, and A.F.S. They performed everything from the older jazz styles to the popular tunes and incorporated choreography into their act. They ended the school year on a fabulous note with the spring show at the L.T.O.B.

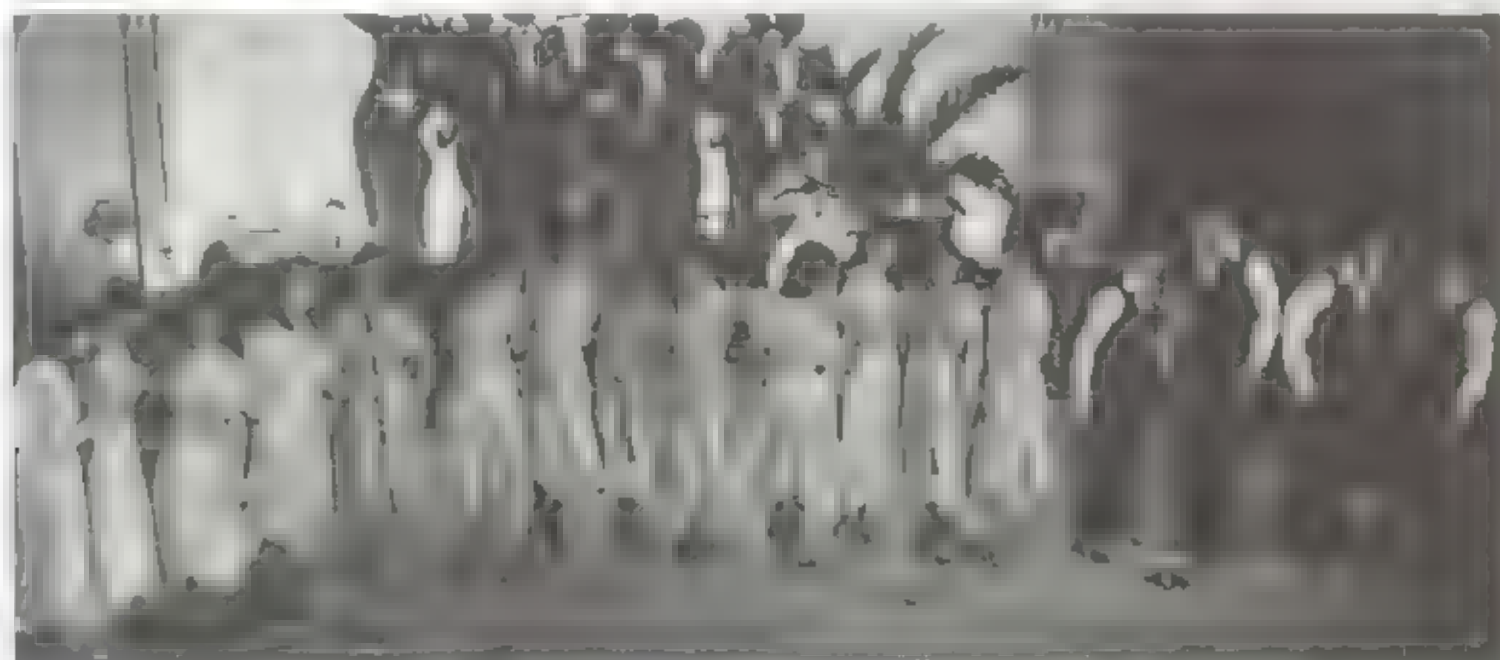

Stephanie Smuts, Mike Smith and Melissa McCord know that practice makes for perfect vocal cords.

The office, media, and library aides slaved, sweated, and worked their fingers to the bone last year.

Office aides performed the exciting tasks of delivering announcements, messages, and those dreaded "white slips", summoning students to chat with Mr Handke or Mrs. Johnson.

Media aides ventured into the world of communication with their filming of fun and exciting events such as dances, plays and athletics. They also delivered and repaired equipment and even helped our somewhat unmechanically inclined teachers to use the equipment.

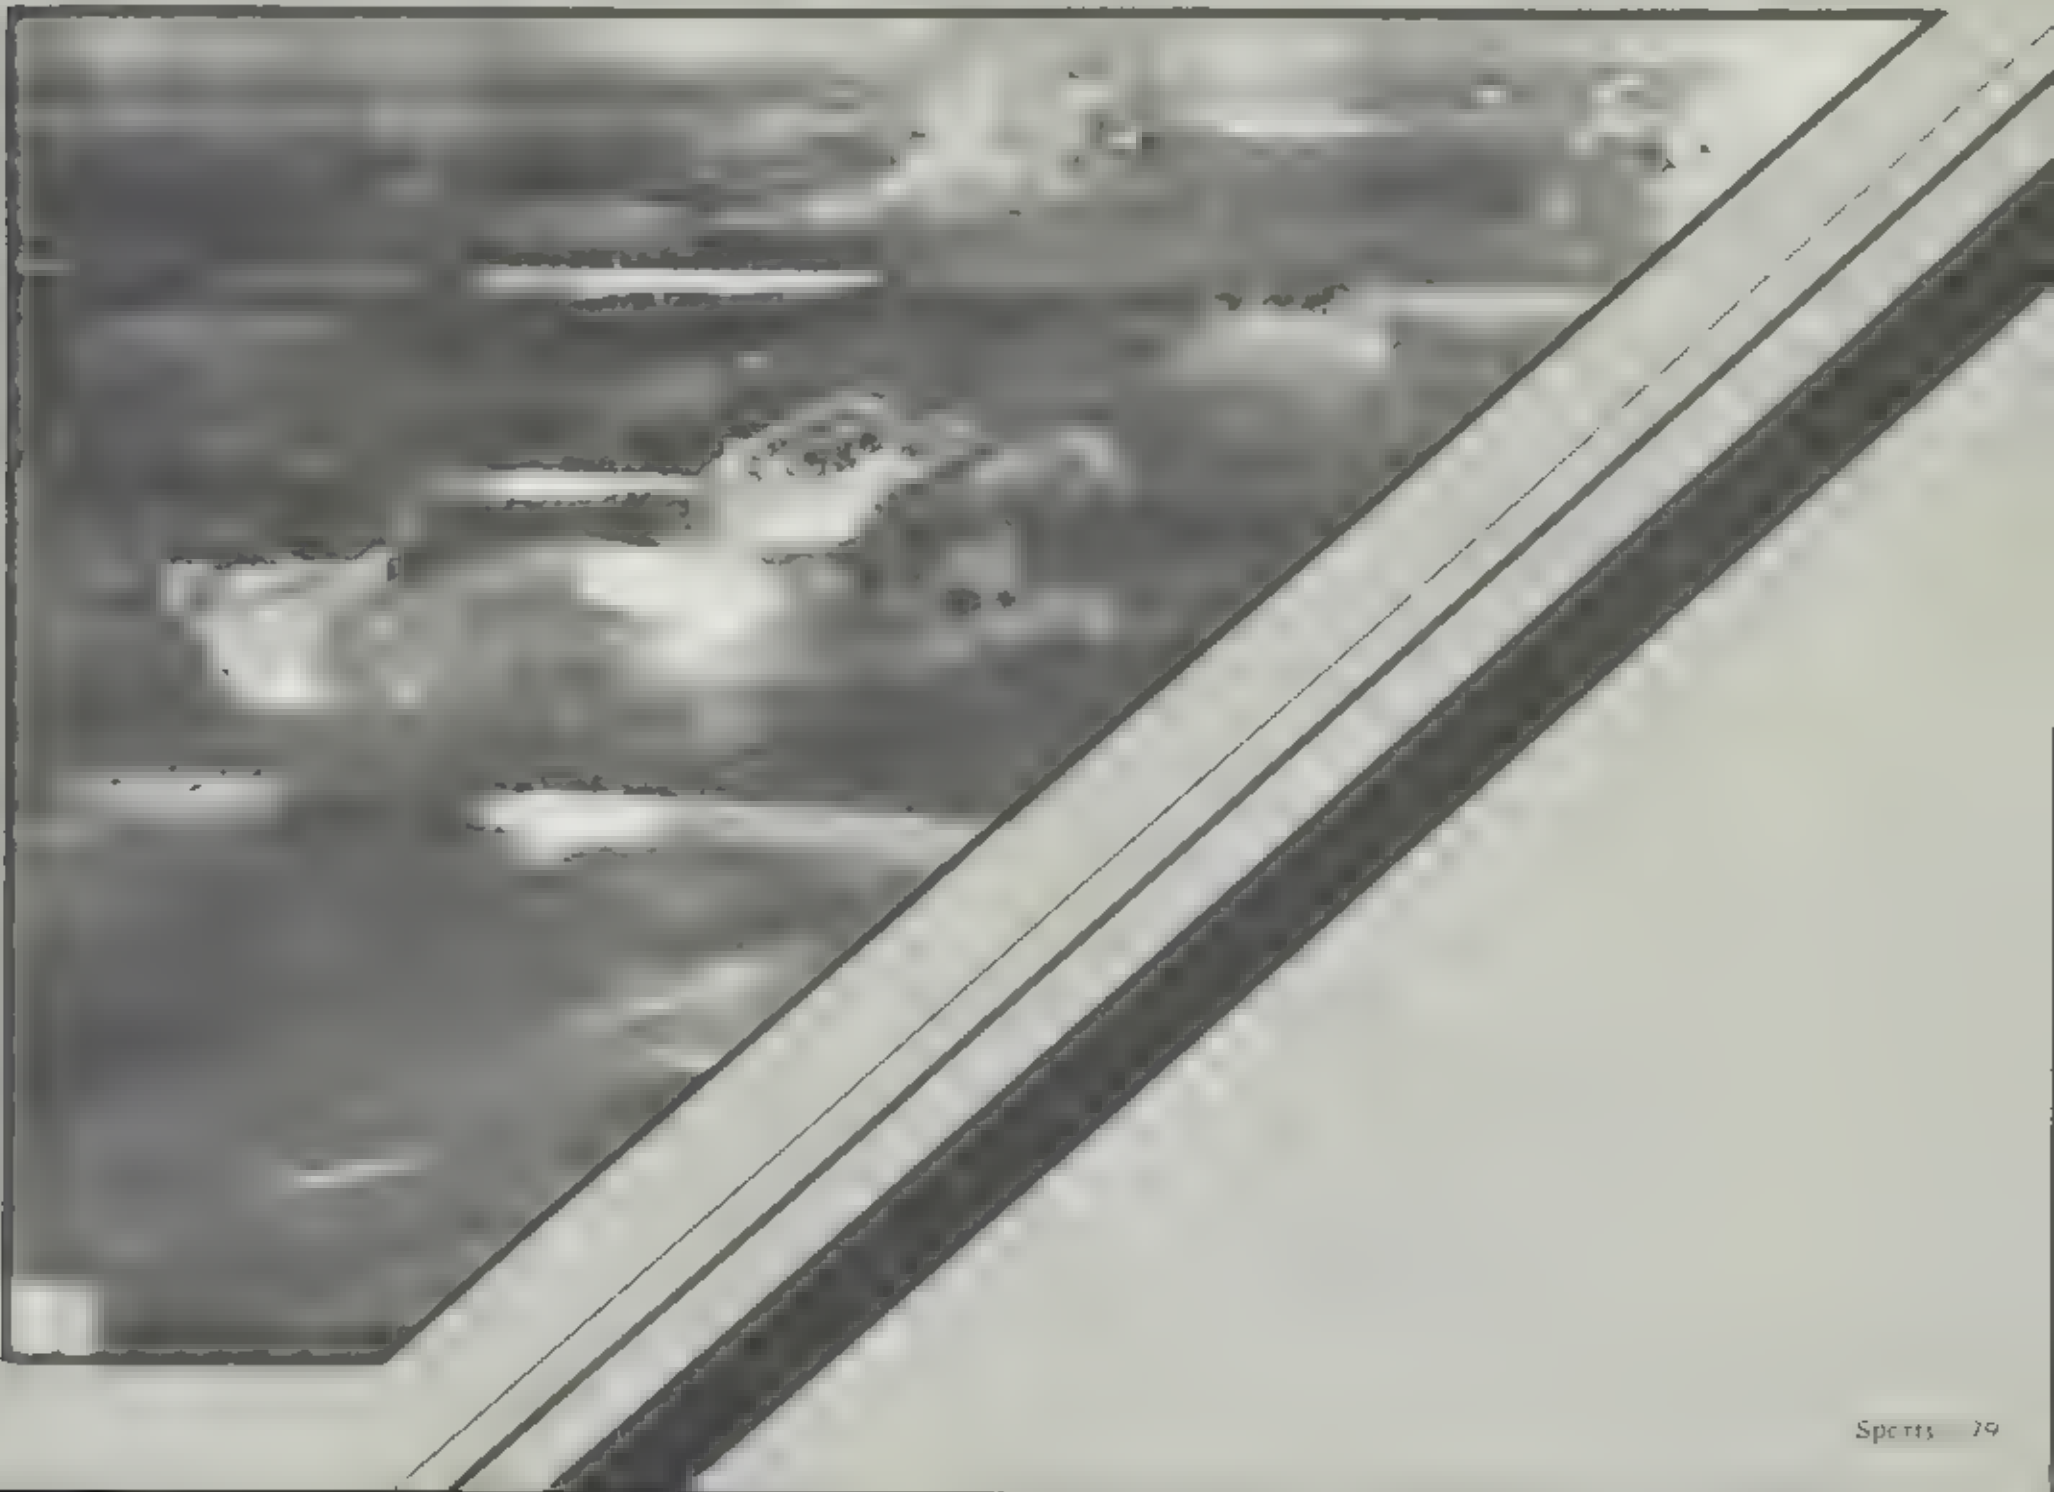

Shelving books, typing, and running the copy machines were some of the stimulating tasks that library aides performed last year.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

This years volleyball team started out the season with a bang. The girls first major accomplishment was taking home a first place trophy from the Harrisburg Invitational. The netters then went undefeated at their first district tournament, and moved into a first place ranking. They continued knocking off opponents until the second district tournament. At this event, the girls went in at first place and finished the day in sixth. They lost a heartbreaker to the Marshfield Pirates and never recovered. The team finished up the season with a 9 and 9 league record. "It's a pleasure to work with a group of girls that are proud to be Bulldogs," commented coach Cindy Schultz about the team.

Hard work and unity were the main ingredients in this years J V volleyball team. The girls were like one unit, always working very well together. They ended up the season with a 6 - 12 league record, and placed fourth at the Harrisburg tournament. Coach Heidi Hartzell commented, "This was a year that really makes you realize what coaching is all about." Voted most inspirational player was Kathy Crabtree and most improved was Nadine Frischman. Kandy Grant was selected the honorary captain.

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY '81

Cross country season for the boys at North Bend consisted of twelve thrilling meets. Adding to the excitement of the winning season was taking home a first place out of twelve schools at the Wadport invitational. The boys stepped ahead of seven teams and made their season record seven wins to five losses.

The Bulldogs walked into district with seven wins under their collar and ran away with a third place position in our district.

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Bulldog basketball team couldn't boast of a great season record as far as district standings were concerned, but they could be proud of several outstanding accomplishments throughout the year.

One such event was a victory over their number one rival Marshfield. For the first time in eleven years, the battling Bulldogs decisively defeated Marshfield with a score of 41-30.

Team spirit rose as the spirit of the crowd filled the auditorium.

This year fans and players saw a new face on the courts, as Steve Berry, from Michigan, joined North Bend as the new head basketball coach. Coach Berry pushed and pulled all the extra effort out of the young players to show them and their opponents what they could really do on the court. Throughout the wins and losses, coach Berry encouraged players to hold their heads up.

The team ended their season with an eight win twelve loss record.

Voted most valuable player was Steve Lucero. Most improved players were Ricky Bradley and Barry Mortenson. Most inspirational player was Mike Forrester.

J.V. BOYS' BASKETBALL

The North Bend J V basketball team was responsible for an entertaining season. At first the J V team fired up their fans to the finish, with seemingly never ending battles. Much of the crowd counted down the final seconds as the games ended with only a one or two point difference. Although not reflected in their season record of five wins and fifteen losses, many accomplishments were met on and off the court throughout the year.

Steve Greif, head coach, held his players above their record throughout the season. "Going on the court with an undefeated attitude is the best there is for a team with our record," remarked coach Greif.

A thrilling defeat over Marshfield was the team's highlight of the year. The game was well earned and ended in favor of North Bend as sharp shooter Carl Johnson sunk in the final two points.

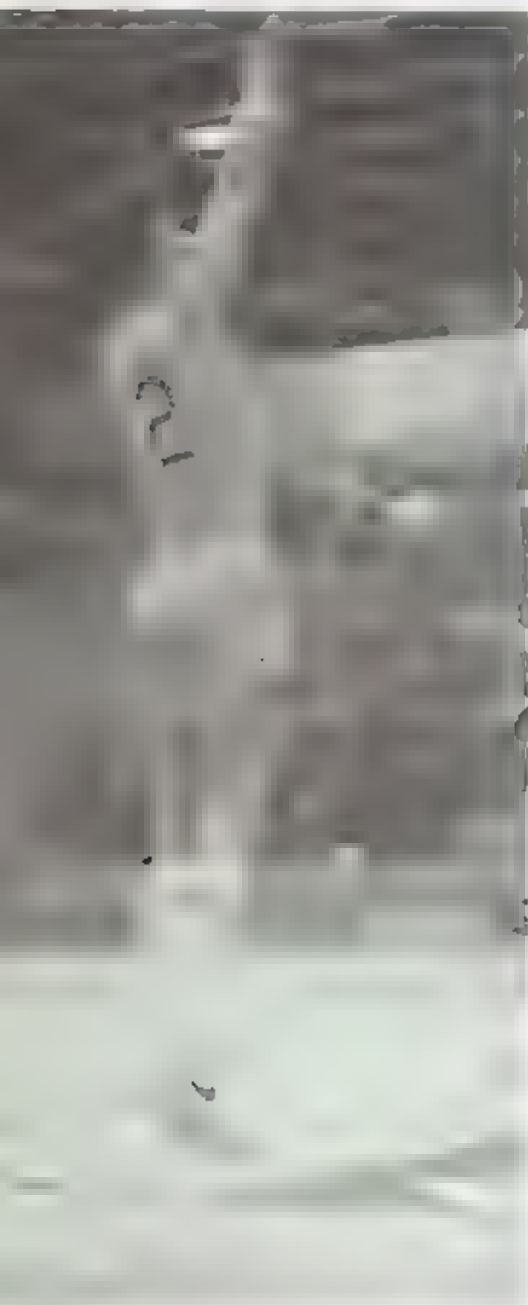

Voted by all teammates were awards as follows: Carl Johnson - team captain, most inspirational and most valuable player. Rod Johnson - most improved; Scott Lovell and Dan Gray - best defensive players.

SOPHOMORE AND FRESHMAN BOYS' BASKETBALL

The sophomore basketball team had a trying season last year, but this spirited, young group never threw in the towel. Although shorter than most of their opponents, they attacked the court with persistence. Coached by Larry Savarino, an understanding leader, the team pulled a five win and fifteen loss record.

The frosh basketball team was a young, talented and extremely tall group last year. Although taller than nearly any other freshman team in the league, they had an up and down season. Coach Bill Horning expected the most out of each player and helped them to develop their natural abilities. The team ended the season with a split record of nine wins and nine losses.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The girls varsity basketball team started out the season with a strong beginning by taking Bandon under their control with a one point victory. Spirit pulled the team together with every member supporting the group in ability as well as team work. The competition was stiff in our district as shown by their six win fourteen loss record.

Two honorable mentions were given, one to forward Candi Calhoun and the other to guard Becky Stiles. Team awards were also received at the sports dessert. Danyel Stuhlmueller was voted most inspirational by her teammates and Barb Rose was selected as most improved. Karen Hanson was voted in as the outstanding senior girl basketball player.

Playing basketball was only part of what the girls experienced. They formed many lasting friendships and had a lot of good times on and off the court.

Coach Tom Younker commented, "I was extremely happy with the team as a whole, and with the fact that we reached the goals we set."

SOPHOMORE & FRESHMEN GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls sophomore basketball team was a new addition to the Bulldogs basketball program. The girls all worked very hard and improved immensely. Although the games were few and far between, the practice was strong and very useful to produce new Bulldog power for next year.

The freshmen girls basketball team had a successful season in the sense that they did a lot of learning and had fun doing it. The girls ended the season with a 1 - 15 season record, while competing against some tough opponents. Mrs. Cindy Schultz coached this enthusiastic young group.

VARSITY WRESTLING

The 1981-82 wrestling season started out extremely strong when the Bulldog wrestlers pinned everybody but one person in the dual meet against South Eugene. Even though North Bend was undefeated in the league dual meets, their main concerns were the large tournaments. North Bend, however, fiercely dominated every tournament except the Oregon City confrontation in which the four top rated teams in Oregon competed.

Coach Abraham emphasized that the Dogs could have placed better in the State Tournament, but they had some very tough draws and a couple of heart breaking injuries.

Brady Scott, voted the teams outstanding wrestler, boldly conquered his quest for the state title in the 178 pound class. Karl "Krunch" Kennedy walked away with a third place in state after a disappointing district performance. Eric Messner, named outstanding freshman wrestler, let the State Tournament barely slip through his fingers when he took a loss to a more experienced grappler from Gresham by a mere two points.

The year was summed up with a first place title in district and a seventh place in state. The teams overall record was an impressive 10-1 winning ratio.

The freshmen wrestling team was coached by former North Bend student and state wrestling champ Robin Richards. Besides this accomplishment, he has earned honors in national and world competition.

The first year of wrestling is mostly a year to get acquainted with the thrill of competition and the stress of peer pressure. The team's choice for outstanding wrestler went to Eric Messner, who placed first in district and wrestled varsity. The team chose well-deserving Scott Barraugh as the most improved wrestler.

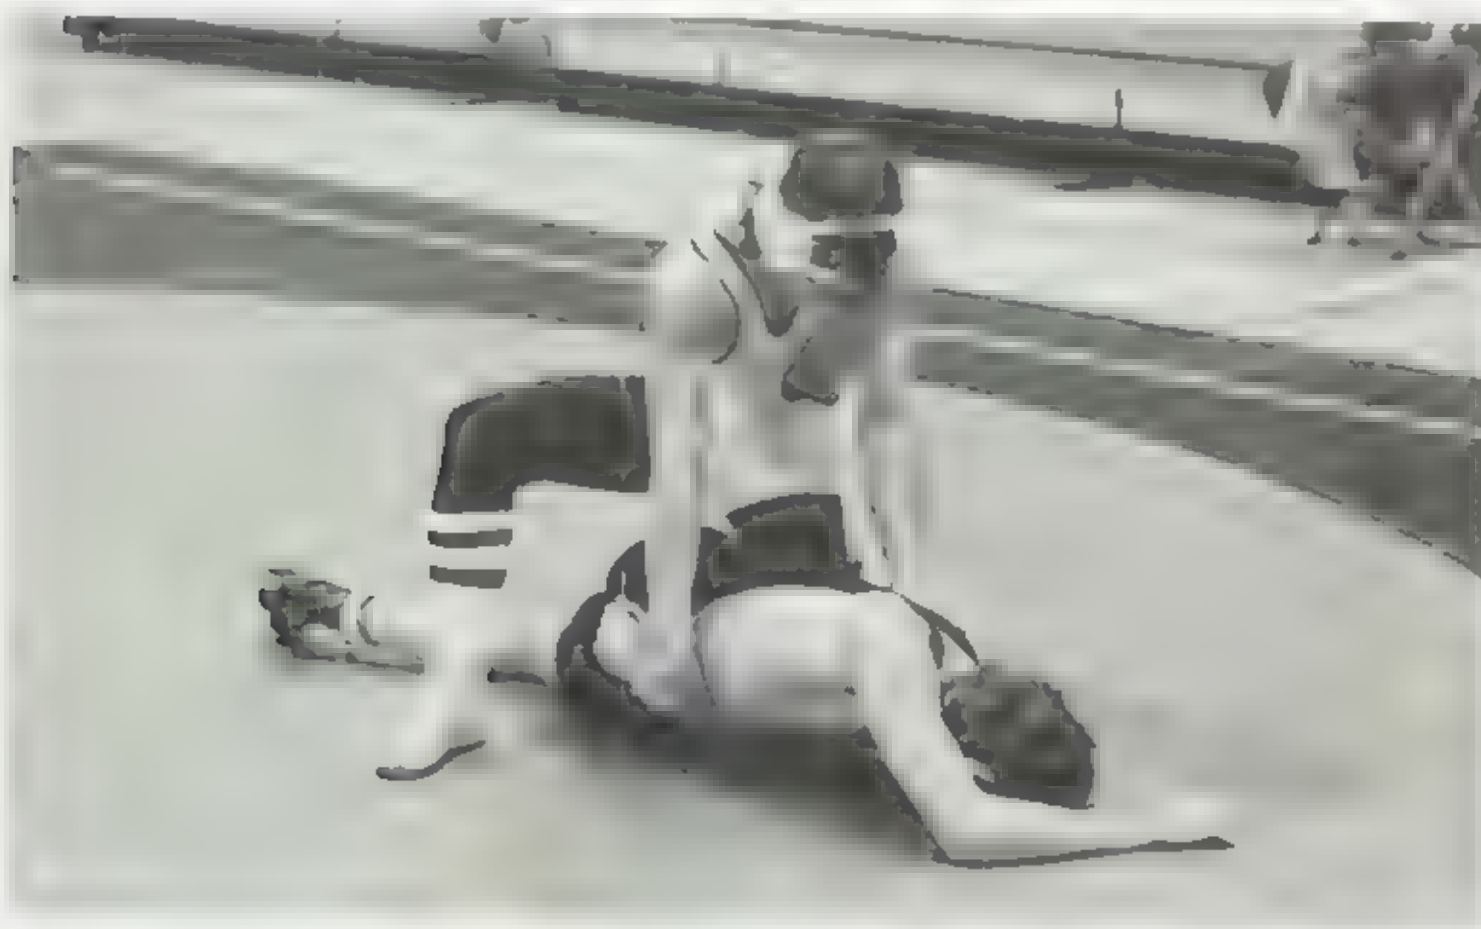

All these young men did their very best to uphold the Bulldog tradition of courage and persistence. They wrestled several varsity double A teams and did surprisingly well.

1982 was an exciting year for the N.B.H.S. swimmers, from the junk food-filled bus trips, right down to the Baby Ruth candy bar in the pool. But it wasn't all play for the swimmers. This year they came up against some of the best swimmers in the state at the invitationals in Corvallis and Beaverton. These aquatic Bull dog athletes held their own.

Both North Bend teams placed second in district and the girls team went on to state to place thirteenth out of over seventy teams.

"We had a better than expected year," said coach Ken Lyons. "Our team was very inexperienced. I was surprised they did so well."

DIVING

Carol Zuvich

For the year of 1982, N B H S. had two outstanding divers, Carol Zuvich and Brad Kastner. Although the only competition these divers had at district was each other, they proved themselves at state. First year diver Brad Kastner placed eleventh for the boys and fourth year diver Carol Zuvich took twelfth for the girls. "Both divers had an exceptional year," commented their coach Chuck Horner.

VARSITY BASEBALL

This years varsity team ended the season with a fairly even record of 11 wins and 13 losses. The rain canceled some of the games, but that did not stop the Bulldogs when they came back and stuck out the bad weather.

Garrett Holmes and Del. Carter earned all-district honors after a successful year for both.

After losing to Springfield 3-2 North Bend wrapped things up in a four way tie for fifth in the District 5AAA playoffs.

Another satisfying victory was that over Marshfield when the Bulldogs slaughtered them twelve to two. The team was coached by Romano Romani.

J.V. BASEBALL

The J V team was also very well balanced with an eight win - eight loss one tie record This years J.V. team was sophomore dominated with only two juniors and two freshmen.

They gained valuable experience when they traveled to California with the varsity team The junior Bulldogs played Grants Pass, Hiram Johnson Burbank, and were scheduled to play Sacramento, but were rained out.

The junior varsity team coached by Rich 'Army' Armstrong, had their ups and downs this year but in the end they stuck together and pulled through with a respectable record.

There were a couple of new additions to the team with Jana Bradford and Ronda Curson, the first girls to ever participate in the baseball program at North Bend. # BOYS' & GIRLS' TRACK

The North Bend track team had something to be proud of during the 1982 season. Coach Steve Gulley emphasized to his young athletes that team work is the answer to it all. The most valuable athletes for the 1982 season were Darren Hess for the boys and Candi Calhoun for the girls. Larry Lentz was the only athlete from both the boys and girls track teams to compete in state competition. The team wound down the year with a four win and three loss record.

BOYS' TENNIS

Remaining undefeated all season was a dream come true for this years boys tennis team, but winning the district tournament and sending a doubles team and a singles player to the state tournament was almost too good to be true. The team members all set their goals high and worked very hard to accomplish them. John Lucero for example, did not lose a single match all year. Len Spencer and Scott Lindsey did the same as they remained undefeated in both singles and doubles matches during the entire season. As a doubles team, Spencer and Lindsey took first place at district and Ronnie Calhoun took fourth in singles. All in all, the team had an outstanding year, and left promise of many good years to come according to coach Calhoun.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Breaking in a new coach, Heidi Hartzell, was a major project for this year's girls tennis team. They gave her new insight on road trips and initiated her with endless pranks. All joking aside, the team put in many hours of serious practice to adjust to the new program. It was time well spent for the doubles team of Johnson and Sharkey, who went into the district tournament without losing a set. They then advanced to the state tournament where they made it to the quarterfinals in the consolation bracket. The team, consisting of eight ambitious seniors and a large collection of up and coming young talent, started the season with full force by winning their first four matches and ending with an 8-4 season record.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The ambitious student council of 1981-82 unofficially declared that year to be one of vandalism awareness. Their plea to the school board earned a $2,000.00 incentive to decrease the percentage of vandalism costs. This proved very successful as vandalism was reduced by about 50 percent. Apathy, a recent dilemma, was tackled in 1981-82 as well. "Students this year have been more concerned with their school. They really wanted to be involved," stated Karol Nelson.

Other projects instigated by the student government were Homecoming spirit week, a Camfel productions assembly, a spring spirit assembly, elections of new officers, and all school awards night. Karol Nelson, commander in chief, was helpfully assisted by the chief advisor Mr. Bill Poppe.

NHS

Leadership, service, character, and above all academic skills, were the very stringent criteria for becoming a famed National Honor Society member. There were about 85 NHS members at North Bend, excluding those who were inducted last spring. Their activities in 1981-82 included sponsoring a dance, having a bake sale, and organizing the basketball game between the seniors and the faculty. All of these fund-raisers were used for the scholarships the club gave to two outstanding seniors. Mr. Bill McGuire was the dignified leader of this aspiring group

THESPIANS

"What do you inject into every performance?" demands Mr. Joe Stoffel, as he concludes his pre-play pep talk. "ENERGY!!" screams his eager-to-perform cast. Being a thespian at North Bend entails both acting and technical work, as points must be earned in both areas. Ten thespian points, one equalling ten hours of work, are required to become a thespian. After the last play, a formal initiation ceremony is held to induct those drama enthusiasts who have worked at least 100 hours on the plays, thus becoming thespians. Last year a workshop was held at SWOCC for the neighboring high schools, which proved helpful in developing technical skills as well as teaching the basics in renaissance dancing

This group of astute students was advised, and likewise wisened, by Mr. Ron Calhoun.

BARKER

Whether writing controversial editorials, straight news stories, or printing photos, the BARKER staff took on the task with the professional zest necessary to produce the school newspaper in 1981-82. The BARKER "hits the halls" every other Friday providing the eager student body with the "scoop" and allowing all students to express themselves in the "Opinion Poll," "Barks and Growls," or the "I want to know" column.

A new feature was added this year, headed "Bumps and Bruises." It covered injuries sustained by staff and students, from sleep walking accidents to motorcycle crashes.

Every Thursday evening prior to publishing day, the staff faithfully "puts the paper to bed" at the North Bend News, with the help of advisor Vi Fietz.

Who was responsible for the production of the spectacular book you are now reading? It was the relaxed, mellow, "we'll get it done" yearbook staff. Then the month of April came upon us. This formerly laid-back group turned into the panicked, ulcered, "we'll never get it done" team that ultimately finished the book on time. Last year the annual staff, in order to save money, took on an extra responsibility. Four staff members, including Mrs. Barbara Baudinat-Hacke (a recent newlywed), put in three extra hours every week at Wegferd Publications doing the paste-up for the book, which was normally done by the company. Other activities completed daily were designing lay-outs, writing copy, printing photos, taking pictures and selling ads.

Two highlights of German Club last year were initiation and the German club potluck. Second, third, and fourth level German classes had the privilege of initiating the first year German class after a short discussion of their strategy, which often included the use of whipped cream, clam juice and sauerkraut. German club members await this annual initiation ceremony with eager anticipation.

Other activities included Christmas caroling with the French and Spanish clubs with a potluck following the seasonal event. An authentic German banquet was held in the spring at the Hilltop House. Partying and picnicing were the main activities of the fun loving French club last year. It's a strange coincidence that nearly every activity of this club included the consumption of food. Last year, the club, headed by Mrs. Barbara Baudinat-Hacke, traveled to Eugene for a tour of the Saturday market, and to consume an authentic French dinner. Other club activities included both a fall and spring picnic, a Halloween party, Christmas caroling, selling buttons and Santa grams and a breakfast. Food Service is without a doubt the most delectable club in the school. If you have ever eaten one of those fabulous box lunches on a sports or Shakespeare trip, you would know this, as they are the kitchen geniuses who create them. This club also caters the before away game banquets for athletes and many other various banquets, as well as running the Snack Shack after school. All of the above activities are fund raisers. The club traveled north to British Columbia for four days guided by head chef, Mr. Bob Cazal, to experience fine dining in a high class atmosphere, as well as to learn the ins and outs of the big city restaurant business.

The food service students ventured to Victoria B.C. to get a taste of fine dining American Field Service is North Bend's most international club. AFS brings together the visiting foreign exchange students with North Bend students eager to be made familiar with other cultures. This group of diverse companions participates in many exciting activities, such as picnics, parties, and dinners.

On the famed Friday, November 13th, the club held a visiting day for all AFS students in the county. The students attended classes at NBHS and after school they held a cookie party. As the wind began to whip up, they migrated to Gino's for a pizza party. The play Harvey was next on the agenda, and the club blew back to the school. The storm howled as the play unwinded, and afterwards there was a party at Michele Rues' house. It wasn't intended to be a slumber party, but as the storm demanded, going home was a treacherous feat, and the party lasted until calm was restored. Friday the 13th served as an eventful day for AFS as well as for the community.

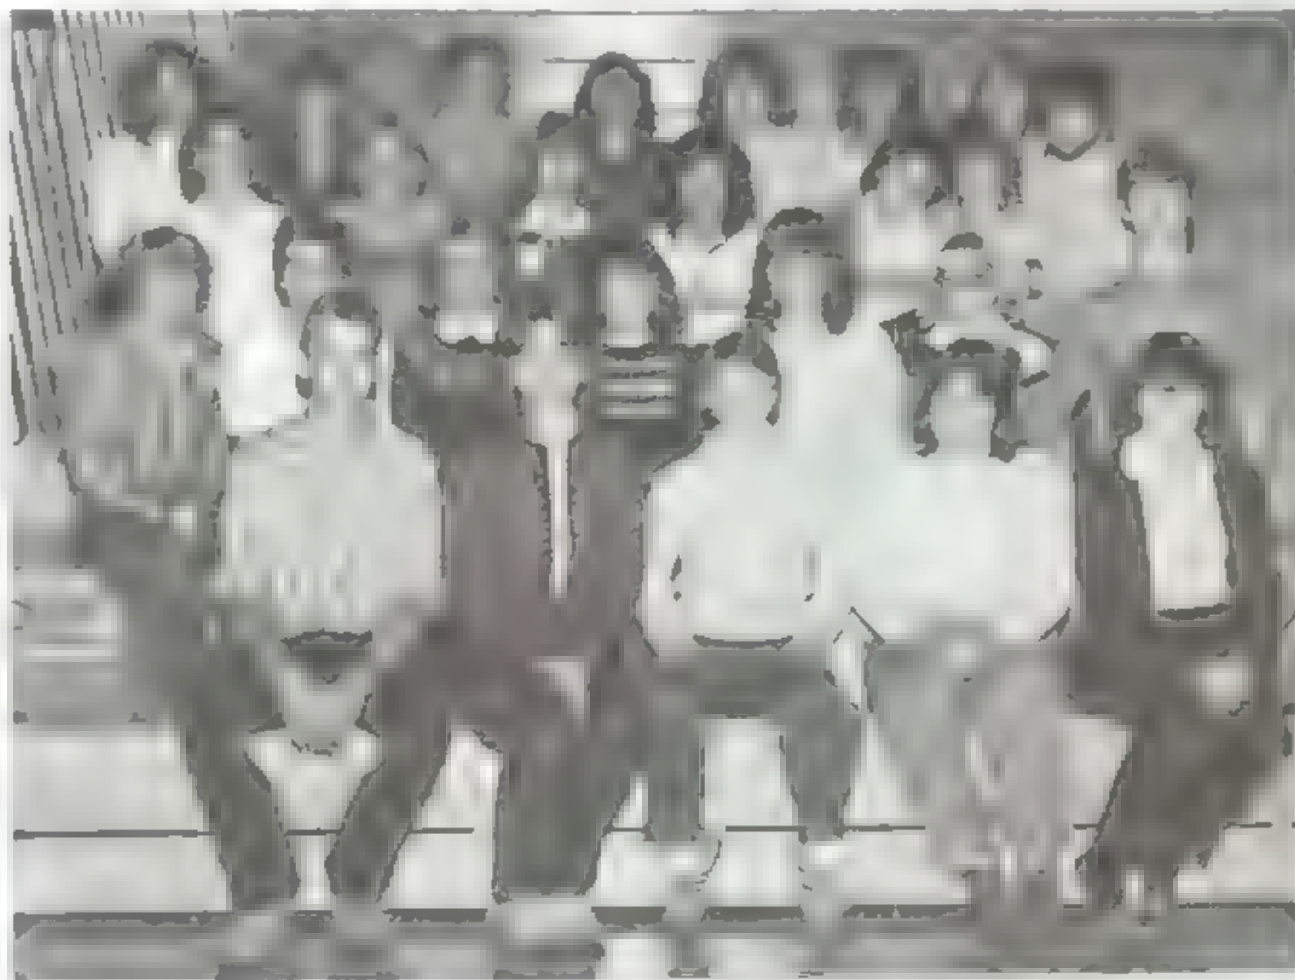

LuAnn Roessler gives service with a smile at the AFS banquet.

"Wow" these are really gassy glasses," exclaims Heidi Gref.

Row Four: Jennifer Danielson, Michele Rues, Jenny Wales, Andrea Weyer, Cynthia Jamsgard, Suzanne Henderson, Bobbie Hoffman.

Barbara Franssen, from Belgium, enjoys the great American outdoors.

"I'd rather be skiing the Alps," says Philip from Switzerland.

This year's visiting students were Barbara Franssen from Belgium and Christina Vernet from Venezuela who had to leave during the year. Philip Konig, from Switzerland, was with us last year as well. Mrs. Heide Cummings and Mr. Dan Matthews were the advisors, as well as playing the role of interpreters.

"Everything is different. Even what is the same is different... At first it is scary because here you are alone, knowing a little bit English and you're going to face a new family, school and friends to make a totally different world with different customs and all this by your own. It's hard but beautiful."

Barbara Franssen

Sam Ford exclaims, "I'm the best in town," as he tries to raise himself with stilts, at the AFS picnic.

Swimming, boating, and sunning were the dockside attractions at the Stinchfield's picnic.

"At first days of school it was really strange because I couldn't understand the teachers or the students."

Philip Konig

SCIENCE CLUB

Somewhere within the walls of N.B.H.S. lurks a sharp group of inquiring, science-minded students who travel to the unexplored lands of Oregon, and search for new scientific discoveries, while sking or perhaps camping. This seems a near impossible feat, but the science club manages expertly. Mr. Bill Poppe leads these young "Einsteins" on their many outings. Selling buttons, distributing 7-11 flyers, and having a Christmas party are the less scientific of their activities.

Row 4 - Chuck Lampe, Kristi Church, Lori Shuminger, Beth Newlander, Teresa Martin, Diane Young, Lori Warner, Diane Laurie, John Greif, Dale Tracy

Early mornings at Cape Arago, afternoons in the indoor labs and evenings by the campfire with the magic hanky, are just a sampling of the fabulously fun things Terramar counselors encounter. About sixty seniors, juniors, and sophomores participate in Landlab, a half day experience for fourth graders, Bluebill Lake, a full day beach trip for fifth graders, and Terramar, an overnight adventure for sixth graders. The basics in succession, marine biology, and ecosystems are instilled in the kids by the counselors, whose vocabulary does not include the phrase "I don't know." Mr. Larry Thornburgh and Mr. Ron Bruce trained these eager fun-loving counselors, and were responsible for the organization of the science seeking sessions.

GIRLS LEAGUE

Girls league, unlike the League of Nations, is a popular organization with a totally female membership. This group of young women is responsible for many of our school's main events, as they create the Sadie, Daddy Date Night, and Mother's Tea. This society is also in charge of choosing the girls of the month. They honored our parents with the themes of "Cheers to the Best of Dads," and "I Enjoy Being a Girl." Under the direction of Mrs. Jean McNamar, the Girls league had a fun-filled year

HOSA is not the favorite word of Bob and Doug McKenzie from the Great White North, it stands for Health Occupation Students of America. The club was very active in 1981-82 participating in many fund raisers as well as community service projects. Having bake sales, selling Hal-o-grams, helping with the bloodmobile, and having senior citizen blood pressure clinics were a sample of their activities. These future medical geniuses showed improvement after being treated at a skills contest at Lewis and Clark College, as well as receiving pointers at a training workshop in Bend. The Future Business Leaders of America were busy as usual in 1981-82. The group, made up of about 50 members, consistently typed their way to a successful year competing at both the district and state levels in their respective areas of business operations. For recreation, the club held a wide variety of activities, ranging from beach parties to a progressive dinner. Their annual holiday activities included the gift wrap center in Pony Village and a Secret Santa gift exchange. The organization received a new advisor at mid year when Mrs. Karen Walcko-Lovatt moved, making way for Mrs. Corliss Burgher.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is an organization of approximately fifty who compete in various areas of industrial skills. The main events are the state competition and later, Nationals. In 1981-82 ten students qualified for the national competition in Louisville, Kentucky. The club then began the gigantic job of raising money for the trip, as they held a garage sale and sold bread that they created themselves. VICA was advised in 1981-82 by Mr. Bruce Hawkins

LUCKY LOGGERS

"Timmmmmmber!!" It's not a falling tree, it's only North Bend's own Lucky Loggers. This club of about twenty is much more than just a group of miniature Paul Bunyans. They are an accomplished organization of competing woodspersons. The group participated in many contests throughout the year with the state skills contest as a final event. In 1981-82 Brenda Huntley gained area recognition with her consistent wins in all-around competition. When the club isn't chain-saw bucking or wire-splicing, they may be found at Diamond Lake enjoying the snow or perhaps practicing choker setting on crabs at a crab feed. The forest friends are frequently advised by "fir faller" Mr. Les Martin.

GEAR GRINDERS

Tune-ups, air conditioning and other automotive repairs are the grist of Gear Grinders. These student mechanics get on-the-job training throughout the year fixing various cars at discount rates. Electrodes is the club in NBHS that involves metals workers. This welding and pounding group was extremely active in 1981-82. They were enlightened by many field trips throughout the year including one to International Paper in Gardiner. Their recreational activities included a trip to Diamond Lake, and a pizza feed. Mr. Barney McGrady was the main conductor of this electric network.

Everything is so still it is as if time has stopped - until the music kicks up. The Drill Team begins their lively routine while the crowd sits mesmerized. When they finish, the applause is deafening.

North Bend's Drill Team had a very exciting year in 1981-21. They received new football outfits and sold spirit hands to subsidize their purchase. Miss Penny Martin was the groups advisor.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming week was packed full of exciting activities such as hat, tie and glasses day, where wild and weird new fashions emerged from the classes; dress-up day, where zany costumes prevailed, and patriotic brown and gold day on the Friday of the big game. Posters made by each class filled the halls all week and sparked spirited sentiments.

Then, it was to the great outdoors for the assembly, in which the seniors stomped the underclassmen; and for the bonfire, where the traditional effigy contest was won by the juniors.

By the time Friday rolled around, school spirit soared to a new high for the big game against the North Eugene Highlanders.

All in all, the juniors wrapped things up as they came out victorious in the class competition at the end of the week.

Excitement mounted as five senior girls anxiously awaited the moment when one of them would be crowned Miss Flame 1981-82. The court consisted of Natalie Sadoff, Danyel Stuhlmiller, Renee Johnson, Tara Smith, and Molly Freeman. Danyel Stuhlmiller walked away with the crown. The girls also participated with the North Bend Fire Department in promoting "Fire Safety Week."

Sadie Hawkins was just plum full of stampedin', knee-slappin' fun and games. Music provided by The Rock Show helped the hombres make the most of the evening. With the refreshments furnished by the Food Service Cluster, nobody had the hungries on the trail.

The theme of the evening was cowboy-western. In between dances, cowpoke couples wandered to various 'hitching posts' such as fortune telling, marryin' Sam, the tunnel of love and the ever-traditional jail.

Everyone enjoyed themselves and the Girls League did a fine job sponsoring this yearly event.

TALENT SHOW

North Bend High School's annual senior talent show was a whopping success, as shown by the massive amount of money raised for the senior class that night. The acts ranged from music, to acting, to jokes, all given by North Bend students.

First place winner was Barbi Kouba, who poured out her talent with "I Honestly Love You", followed by Heidi Menzenburg who earned second place with a musical presentation, and third was taken away by a pair of musicians: Stacie Clark and Tekla Haasl. Fourth place went to Barton Massey with his original "Pickin' and Grinnin'". North Bend's All American Girls Debbie Donnelly, Stephanie Smuts, and Konnie Nelson Fenton swept fifth place for the evening. The Master of Ceremonies was Kelly Daugherty who was always ready with a joke to break the monotony of dead space.

This senior exhibition of modern Bulldog entertainment wound down and ended, leaving a warm feeling within the crowd.

"HARVEY"

Last year's first theatrical production was Mary Chase's "Harvey". This humorous play told the story of Elwood P. Dowd and his chum Harvey, a 6'1" invisible white rabbit. Things go well for Elwood until his sister and niece try to commit him to Chumley's Rest, an insane asylum. The plot thickens when Dr. Chumley also begins to see the rabbit. A well staged and produced play, "Harvey" drew a full house nearly every night of its performance. The stormy production dates were November 12, 13 and 14.

Elwood suggests that they all go to Charlie's Place for a drink.

"I'm sorry doctor, I thought Elwood was the crazy one," laments Nurse Kelly Creativity fully describes "Story Theatre," the winter play last year. This delightful collection of fairy tales and fables entertained audiences the 27th and 28th of February. Skilled players portrayed a variety of roles, ranging from farm animals to priests. Old favorites such as "The Bremen Town Musicians" and "Henny Penny" were enjoyed, as well as others like, "The Master Thief" and "The Golden Goose."

"WHO KILLED RICHARD CORY?"

"Who Killed Richard Cory?" This question haunted audiences minds both before and after each performance. The storyline revolved around the major events throughout Richard Cory's life, as he attempts to become one of the "people on the street." This one flaw in Cory's character led to his eventual demise. The play touched the hearts and minds of the audiences on the 13th, 14th, and 15th of May.

TOMORROW IS TODAY

This is our last dance
This is our last song
The time is come to say our last good-bye.
Roads await us
Different lifetimes
Thus ends the last few years of clear blue skies
Now is the time that We have been waiting for
No one of us can say just how it feels
Time is the branching
This is the lift-off
Let's hope our dreams be what the future reveals
Did we expect it?
Or did it come too soon?
What can we do now that we are through?
Where do we go now?
Which way to turn to?
Now is the time to start our lives anew
And if by chance our roads cross
If by chance we meet again
We can reminisce of yesterday
We can turn around and look this way
To see again our disarray
When we wondered how the times would weigh
And recall sunsets on the bay
Football games and Crazy Day
And cafeteria decay
Waiting for that special day
Those days gone by when we could say
Tomorrow will be another day
But tomorrow is today

IN MEMORY

Mr. Gilbert Williamson earned his degree at the University of Colorado and taught music at North Bend for ten years. During the 1981-1982 school year, he took a one year sabbatical to study at the U. of O. and O.S.U.

This leader of the band has gone, but for those of us who knew him, worked with and against him, and grew to love and respect him his song will always be in our souls

August 16, 1941 February 25, 1982

Mr. Gilbert Williamson

Robin Ralls

Born September 27, 1965, Robin Ralls, a sophomore, died April 13, 1982. Robin enjoyed Modern Dance and riding her motorcycle and other outdoor activities. However, going cruising was her favorite pastime

September 27, 1965 - April 13, 1982

Bryan Allen Cox

Bryan Allen Cox died as a freshman in 1982. He was involved in numerous activities that ranged from the challenging to the simple. Many people knew Bryan and showed their sympathy by attending his services.

July 16, 1965 - March 12, 1982

A TRIBUTE

To all the seniors
I knew so well
And all those memories
That were so swell

Now it's time for you to go
Graduation – as you know.

Life is here,
Oh how you shout,
A slight step forward,
A giant step out!

For all the times
That were so dear,
Thinking back brings
A tear.

High school memories that were so fun –
Leaving back
The unfortunate ones.

Freshman, Sophomore,
Junior year.
Oh how it flew by your
SENIOR YEAR.

So, here's to you
My final say
I hope to see you
One future day!!

Michelle Stickler
1982

Shella,

All I can say
now is Bye.

I am in good at everything but those looks to it good. you to know we for yourself and I wouldn't do
 of you.

like a great night, the three can go for a ride, we give me the direct license for a well have memories of you and is going fine and we have another go over to berdy's and greet him + that means down again is a nice year, he's coming down I'll meet him + this year ya + had in the rich + a rag for me + the best had really excited + a picture of me + the best had my man, love ya + even is getting hurt.

similar well, Jeff Bailey sure thinks stud. But I'm far above that. As we all know!!! ey- Good luck with Mike. He seems like he's a pretty neat guy and why out not go for it all. I hope things all work out down here in time, it will. It was quite a north bend. I'm sure as sophomores, but our Junior year hooked yourself a place on the Team. Linda, Gina, me and you will show them all how totally Rad we are. But they all know. I wish we could have got more classes together <sup>than</sup> we did, but Friday nights will be enough. You're a great person Sheila. I'm glad I met you. It was worth waiting for you to during our freshmen year. Now, that was your fault! But we're pretty now and it's getting better. On yeah → Tell mom & Dad Billings "Hi" for keep up the nice personality and don't change a bit. Oh yah- work on I hope things work out this year and I hope you get everything you ning other people want you too. Now that's dumb. Well, I better go
Have a good year and stay away from creeps like Jeff Bailey!

How's it hangin',
at know this year
is going to be choice.
Because I am in your choice. You know she is wrong writing but she is wrong
(writing that is.) Ha Ha
Later for day
Love ya (oops) now
Gell

Hi Sheila, aren't we do what's up? man, aren't we 100% the awesome Drill team?
I sure hope we make it state, don't you? anyway Chickie I hope this year and next year will be the best ever. don't you? Remember "84" rules. Im talking totally rules - well, Sheila your one of the sweetest and understanding people that I've ever met when you graduate coz I sure won't forget you! X

have you,
your bubby always
